Tourism and tourist attraction

Kazimierz Dolny is a genuine architectural gem and one of the most precious and enchanting places in Poland. It is also one of the most famous tourist and leisure sites in Poland and abroad. Its tradition as a connection with the art and for being a mecca of the art world. Many artists run their art galleries and workshops here, while others come to the town to paint outdoors. The uniqueness of the town derives from its rich cultural heritage and the legacy of the painting, writing and artistic bohemia.

The town abounds with historical buildings and sites which are open for visitors (e.g. religious buildings, historical buildings of the Vistula Museum, the synagogue, the castle complex, wooden structures). The monuments of Kazimierz Dolny are authentic, which adds to the true value of the town. The romantic and whimsical appeal of the local architecture is of particular value to individuals who are able to notice such subtleties.

Tourist trails. Many people coming to Kazimierz Dolny restrict their tourist activity to visiting the market square and the neighbouring monuments, such as St. John the Baptist and St. Bartholomew the Apostle Parish Church, the castle, the synagogue and a few other sites. However, the areas surrounding the town are also very attractive and worth seeing.

The system of loess gorges, very intricate and picturesque, surrounds the town. One does not have to go to gorges are only a few tens of metres away from the market square. The network of gorges around Kazimierz Dolny allows you to go around almost the entire town. It is probably the only town in Poland where there are oases of nature amid the urban sprawl, just next to the crowded and noisy market square. Strolls through the gorges are a great idea for all those who want to spend their leisure time enjoying active recreation. The fresh air, fabulous sights and unique atmosphere of this place make a hike through the gorges an unforgettable experience.

Tunnel, one can feel like entering the realm of Tolkien's Middle-earth. The rays of light shining through the roots and trunks, blurring with loess ground and green vegetation make quite a remarkable impression. That is why the Root Tunnel is amongst the favourite themes of artists painting the landscapes of Kazimierz Dolny.

from the town market square, near the Franciscan monastery.

An interesting thing here is the cross erected at the crossroads and the history around it. This is a so-called plague cross, which used to have two horizontal beams. It was erected during one of the plagues which ravaged the town of Kazimierz Dolny ages ago.

near the Lightning Rock (Polish: Piorunowa Skąła), which is a place with an enchanting atmosphere and is often videotaped.

What to wear and what to pack while hiking through the gorges around Kazimierz Dolny? No special shoes or sneakers over sandals and remember that successful and safe hike depends on the weather. When it rains, loess saturated with water becomes slippery and turns into a thick, sticky mud. You will not have to climb or get around any obstacles, but in some places, e.g. in the Norowy Gorge (Polish:
Norowy Dół) you will have to force your way through the thicket.

Apart from numerous trail routes and monuments, Kazimierz Dolny also offers a wide array of tourist attractions, which include: a river fleet which organizes leisure cruises on the Vistula, as well as party cruises; horse-drawn carriage rides or sleigh rides (in winter); off-road vehicle trips around the town and its environs; a ski station (2 km from the town centre); XC skis; Melex electric vehicle trips around the town.
